

Lateral transfer of employees to positions or departments for the School's convenience may be made as needed at the discretion of administration. Lateral transfer is defined as the same job classification.