

Students who violate the Code of Behavior are subject to disciplinary action, which may include a short term out of school or in school suspension. In the event that this happens, students and parents are required to meet with administration and follow the Return from Suspension Protocol.

Returning from Suspension

- Students returning from suspension must meet with administration and parents before returning to class following an out of school suspension.
- Students who do not have this meeting will be recommended for exclusion from the school after missing 10 days of school.

Procedure for Returning from Suspension

- Letter to go home with with parents on day of suspension outline the suspension dates and the date of re-entry meeting.
- Students who do not have this meeting will be in ISS and be held out of school using an excused local code.
- Re-entry plan will be shared with teacher at the conclusion of the meeting..
- Make-up work will be supplied to the student once the meeting has taken place.
